Apology

Since 2008, we, AZYK Technologies Co. Ltd, AVIO International Co. Ltd, Ming-cheng YANG (楊銘章) and Ting-hsin CHIANG (江庭鑫), illegitimately distributed and marketed, without any authorization from Futaba Corporation, a Japanese Company, (hereafter referred to as “Futaba”), the counterfeit components for the remote control model helicopters bearing Futaba trademark (including the products of GY401 gyro, and S9254 and S9257 servo), and disseminated the unlawful reproductions of the “Futaba AVCS RATE GYRO401 INSTRUCTION MANUAL”, the copyright of which is held by Futaba. We understand that the foregoing acts have severely violated Futaba’s rights, especially its trademark rights and copyrights, and that, in addition to compensating for Futaba’s losses, such acts also constituted criminal offences in accordance with the law.

We are profoundly sorry for any damage and inconvenience that Futaba has suffered as result of our foregoing acts of counterfeit and hereby express our deepest apology. We promise that we will not violate any of Futaba’s rights again in the future and have reached a settlement with Futaba in this matter. We hereby remind all fellow businesses to respect third party intellectual property rights and to refrain from any illegitimate use of third party trademark, reproduction of work subject to third party copyright, or distribution of such infringing products.

We express our apologies towards the businesses or consumers who have purchased the foregoing counterfeit products from us since 2008. In the case where the products are returned by such businesses or consumers, be it known that we agree to unconditionally retrieve the foregoing counterfeit products at the then sale price.

Yours sincerely
